

(cut out and distribute to each pair of students)

Using newspapers, brochures or the internet determine the: Average cost for hotel accommodations for one night (in a major Canadian city) for a family of four.
Using newspapers, brochures or the internet determine the: Average cost for hotel accommodations for one night (outside of major cities) for a family of four.
Using newspapers, brochures or the internet determine the: Average cost for lunch for one person eating out.
Using newspapers, brochures or the internet determine the: Average cost for dinner for one person eating out.
Using newspapers, brochures or the internet determine the: Average cost for breakfast for one person eating out.
Using newspapers, brochures or the internet determine the: Average gas price for regular unleaded fuel.
Using newspapers, brochures or the internet determine the: Average cost of a taxi.
Using newspapers, brochures or the internet determine the: Average cost of a city bus.
Using newspapers, brochures or the internet determine the: Fuel consumption for a 4 cylinder car.

Travel Cost Quiz

(Have each pair make up the questions and then work through quiz with class orally)

1. The average cost for hotel accommodations for one night (in a major Canadian city) for a family of four is:
a) b) c) d) e)
2. The average cost for hotel accommodations for one night (outside of major cities) for a family of four is:
a) b) c) d) e)
3. The average cost for lunch for one person eating out is:
a) b) c) d) e)
4. The average cost for dinner for one person eating out is:
a) b) c) d) e)
5. The average cost for breakfast for one person eating out is:
a) b) c) d) e)
6. The average gas price for regular unleaded fuel is:
a) b) c) d) e)
7. The average cost of a taxi is:
a) b) c) d) e)
8. The average cost of a city bus is:
a) b) c) d) e)
9. The average fuel consumption for a 4 cylinder car is:
a) b) c) d) e)